CANNON HILL CATHOLIC PARISH
Under the pastoral care of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate

The call of Jesus Christ, heard within the Church through people's need for salvation, draws us together as Missionary Oblates of Mary.' (Oblate Constitution 1)

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS — 1ST NOVEMBER

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favoured." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favour is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.

Solemnity of All Saints

Feast Day: 1st November

This Sunday, the Catholic Church celebrates All Saints Day, a special day dedicated to remembering and honouring all the saints, those known to us by name and the many holy men and women whose lives of faith may be known only to God.
All Saints Day reminds us that holiness is not something reserved for a select few. The saints came from different places, cultures and backgrounds, and they show us that we can follow Christ through the ordinary moments of everyday life. Their courage, kindness, compassion and faith inspire us to live with greater love and generosity.
As we celebrate this beautiful feast, we give thanks for the example and prayers of the saints. May their lives encourage us to grow in faith, serve others with love and recognise the presence of God in our own daily lives.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." – Matthew 5:8

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:
'How happy are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS - THIRTY-SECOND SUN IN ORD

First Reading - Wisdom 6:12-16
Wisdom is found by those who look for it.
Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 62:2-8
R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14
Those who died as Christians, God will bring to life with Jesus.
Gospel Reading - Matthew 25:1-13
Look, the bridegroom comes. Go out to meet him.

"Only God can satisfy those who seek peace and justice, because he is the just judge of the world and the author of eternal peace. Only in God do the meek, the merciful and the pure of heart find joy, because he is the fulfilment of their expectations. In persecution, God is the source of redemption; in falsehood, he is the anchor of truth. Therefore, Jesus proclaims: "Rejoice and be glad!."
Pope Leo XIV, Angelus address, Feb 2026

NOVEMBER MASSES

All Masses during November will be offered for the Commemoration of ALL the Dearly Departed. YELLOW ENVELOPES will be available in the foyer should you wish to offer a Mass Intention during this time. Completed envelopes can be placed in the basket in the sanctuary.

ANOINTING & HEALING MASS

Wednesday, 4th November at 9am
at St Oliver Plunkett Church

At this Mass, we pray for physical, spiritual and emotional healing for the sick and elderly. The healings offered in this Sacrament are peace, hope and the strength to endure the sufferings of sickness and old age, and await God's healing care.

Eucharist Adoration

Friday, 6th November
(1st Friday of Every Month - after 9am Mass)
St Oliver Plunkett Church at 9.30am
"Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
Matthew 11:28

MEMORIAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE - ALL SOULS' DAY

Monday, 2nd November

At this Mass we remember our dearly departed family members, friends and parishioners who have passed away during the last twelve months.

The Book of Remembrance has been placed in the sanctuary of both churches and will remain there throughout November. This provides an opportunity to add the names of loved ones who have died at any time.

Volunteer Training

Thank you to all our wonderful volunteers whose time, dedication and generosity help make our Parish and liturgies so special.

Volunteers may have received an email from the Archdiocese of Brisbane requesting them to undertake further training. This can be done online at home, and Ronda can help you complete WH&S training by pointing out the location of First Aid Kits, Emergency Exits and Fire Extinguishers before or after Mass. If you have any difficulty with any of the training, please contact the Parish Office. Alternatively, the Parish will arrange face to face training sessions. Dates and times will be advised next weekend.

Congratulations Sade & Michael!!!

A heartfelt congratulations to Sade Bond and Michael Ritchie, who were married at St Oliver Plunkett Church on Saturday morning.

Sade and Michael were received into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil last year. It has been a joy to share in their faith journey.

May God bless them as they begin this beautiful new chapter together.

MISSIONARY OBLATES OMI of MARY IMMACULATE

From the moment the Oblates arrived in Fremantle in 1894, they have dedicated themselves to the mission of the Church in Australia. They dedicate themselves to serving the poor in parishes, schools, prisons, among the youth and with those on the streets. The Oblates preach Christ to the poor and the most abandoned and have served them in Australia for more than 100 years.
