

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

20TH OCTOBER 2024

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard several weeks ago (on the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark 9:33-37), Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?

GOSPEL READING 13TH OCTOBER - MARK 10:35-45

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

This Week's Readings

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11:

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs and have long life.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 32:4-5, 18-20, 22

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16:

Let us be confident in approaching the throne of grace.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:35-45:

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

Jesus is on the road, while they [disciples] are off the road. Two roads that cannot meet. Only the Lord, through his cross and resurrection, can save his straying friends who risk getting lost. It is for them, as well as for all the others, that Jesus is journeying to Jerusalem. For them, and for everyone, will he let his body be broken and his blood shed. For them, and for all, will he rise from the dead, and forgive and transform them by the gift of the Spirit. He will at last put them back on his road.

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

From the moment the Oblates arrived in Fremantle in 1894, they have dedicated themselves to the mission of the Church in Australia. They dedicate themselves to serving the poor in parishes, schools, prisons, among the youth and with those on the streets. The Oblates preach Christ to the poor and the most abandoned and have served them in Australia for more than 100 years.

A special thank you to all our wonderful and dedicated Volunteers who work tirelessly to make our community what it is. You are all truly amazing!!

OTHER NEWS AND EVENTS

Our Lady of Olatz (from Glimmers of Grace)

The Loyola family was responsible for several hermitages. The Hermitage of Our Lady of Olatz was close enough to the home of Ignatius for him to hear its daily Angelus bells. Going there would have been a part of his childhood. Amazingly, the wood statue is original.

I contemplate the image.

I contemplate Our Lady of Olatz.
I come into her presence.

I ask.

Our Lady of Olatz,
Accompany my children in their childhood.
Help me to love, nurture and protect them
as you do.

Please intercede with Jesus to meet the present needs of each child in my family,
in particular ...

I pray a Hail Mary.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners
now and the hour of our death. Amen.

Volunteer Focus – Children's Liturgy

Children's Liturgy is a special time for kids when they can experience the Gospel in a comfortable and personal way. It is currently offered on the first Sunday of the month and next year we hope to offer it on the second and fourth Sundays of each month BUT we need your help!

In fact, this vital ministry may have to be put on hold if we don't get any more volunteers.

There aren't any special skills needed to participate and we would provide all resources and training for you.

If you would like to find out more, please contact Norma in the Parish Office or see Ronda or Paul.

ANOINTING & HEALING MASS

Wednesday, 30th October at 9am
at St Oliver Plunkett Church

At this mass, we pray for physical, spiritual and emotional healing for the sick and elderly. The healings offered in this Sacrament are peace, hope and the strength to endure the sufferings of sickness and old age, and await God's healing care.

ALPHA CONNECT DINNER

All Alpha attendees, family and friends, are warmly invited to the next Connect Dinner on Thursday, 24th October at 6pm in the Parish Hall. These dinners are held fortnightly. Simply bring a dish to share and enjoy a short presentation followed by an engaging discussion. All welcome!!!

MEDIA SPOTLIGHT

A LEGENDARY NEW PODCAST

FOR THE CHILDREN

Firebreaker is a sweeping fantasy epic for family listening, based on the classic legend of St. George and the Dragon. Told over eleven adventurous episodes, Firebreaker is a remix of the classic tale, filling in the gaps, expanding on themes and filling the margins with excitement.

Firebreaker is a love letter to the Golden Legend, and is faithful to the spirit of the historical Saint George; expanding on the archetypes and fantastical elements in new, exciting ways.

CATHOLIC QUIZ

What gesture should the faithful make just before receiving Communion?

a. genuflect

b. bow one's head

Answer: B. Bow one's head. As the person in front of you is receiving Holy Communion, bow your head as a sign of reverence. The rubrics specified in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal specifically instruct the communicant to bow his head before the sacrament as a gesture of reverence, so it is required for those physically able.
